

ASSISTANCE WITH CARE AND HOUSING FOR THE AGED (ACHA)

If you are a person 50 years or older who is homeless, or at risk of homelessness, then the Assistance with Care and Housing for the Aged Program (ACHA) can assist you to find the right accommodation for your needs.

This may include:

- Assisting you to find housing through the private market.
- Assisting you to apply for affordable social housing.
- Assisting you if you are at risk of losing your present accommodation due to tenancy issues.
- Supporting you to find a Residential Aged Care facility.

REFERRAL PATHWAY

You can be referred to the ACHA program through My Aged Care, Self, GP, other support networks and hospitals.

www.footprintsinc.org.au

07 3252 3488

OUR SERVICES

-  Locating appropriate properties
-  Providing transport to view properties
-  Assistance with paperwork
-  Understanding tenancy
-  Assistance with arrangements to relocate
-  De-clutter service and support
-  Locating Residential Aged Care facilities
-  Find out about our other services that may suit you

THE RANGE OF SUPPORT INCLUDES:

-  Brief intervention
-  Case management
-  Investigating alternative housing options
-  Advocacy
-  Liaison and referral to health, community care, welfare and social supports
-  Assistance to maintain or build support networks

myagedcare

Australian Government
Department of Health